DLJ Produce celebrates 15 years

1993 Tim Salmon was named American League Rookie of the Year
1993 Dallas Cowboys upset the Buffalo Bills, 30-13
1993 Dow Jones Industrial closed at 3754
1993 One US gallon of gas was $1.06

1993 DLJ Produce was formed as a full-line produce company

Since that time the company has evolved into a national shipper, importer, distributor, consolidator and broker specializing in grapes, soft fruits and potatoes and onions. With the company's two strategically placed offices it operates as a strong connection throughout the entire supply chain, from growers to consumers.

DLJ Produce's strengths are in both retail and food service categories as well as full capabilities to tailor any item to any customized program. Both company offices include sales, specialized procurement, marketing programs, complete logistics and transportation department and are fully invested in all current technology. All operations are fully HACCP certified with third party certifications earning Superior ratings on all audits. The company's website tells the full story as well as the marketing report page is updated weekly with timely commodity information.

Over the last fifteen years DLJ Produce has built their company on honesty, integrity and passion. It is the company's mission to provide quality produce with the highest level of customer service by building solid partnerships with individual pride, team passion and company accountability.

DLJ produce proudly supports its local community by partnering with local food banks, local churches and youth sports programs, as well as commits and participates consistently with the City of Hope and Childhelp charitable efforts. The company also supports the produce industry with their affiliations with The Produce Marketing Association, United Fresh, Produce for Better Health Foundation, Western Growers Association and The Fresh Produce & Floral Council.

A solid partnership makes a world of difference
